

Miss Emma Louise Garner Becomes The Bride of John R. McCrummen

By GILLIE P. LANSBEN.

A very pretty home wedding ceremony was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jensen, 2891 Bliss street, Miss Emma Louise Garner and John R. McCrummen were united in marriage by the Rev. Peter R. Kallischer, Wednesday night. The home was beautifully decorated in rose, carnations and sweet peas, the color scheme of pink and white being used throughout. Prior to the ceremony, Miss Emma McCrummen played a recitation from "The Song of the Lark". All for You was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Robert Lander. Miss McCrummen, sister of the groom, played the wedding march. Miss Helen Jackson, the maid of honor, preceded the bride.

Miss Garner entered upon the altar of her bride, William Jensen, who gave her in marriage. The bride was met at the altar by Mr. McCrummen, accompanied by his best man, R. B. Henson. The bride was very beautifully gowned in white tulle with a large lace collar and a long train. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss McCrummen's pretty frock was of pink, with hat to match. After the ceremony, a reception was held and the wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom. The bride was accompanied at the piano by Miss Nellie Hargrove, sister of the bride. Mrs. Wm. Jensen was in silver gray.

Ostrich Feathers As Trimming

BY GERTRUDE BERESFORD.

Ostrich feathers are used to adorn most beautiful dresses, hats and parasols. A fascinating use of ostrich trimming is shown on this afternoon gown of French gray Georgette crepe, which displays three rows of ostrich fringes on each sleeve, and a band and waist fringes around the neck. The gown is divided by a gathered ruffle or heading of Georgette crepe. Ruffled ribbon, or rather three separate strands of ribbon—old gold, greenish blue and old rose—gold snugly around the waist and end in little bows. Four lines of bead embroidery in gray trim the front of the blouse. With this effective gown is worn an all-black hat.
